What is not insured?

Are excluded in particular:

- ✗ Any disability or condition or illness which originated prior to the commencement of this policy or of your inclusion under this policy until a period of one year has elapsed during which you have neither received nor required any treatment.
- ✗ Any health condition, where such condition has already been the subject of a claim under an earlier journey.
- ✗ Any circumstance which could reasonably have been foreseen as likely to give rise to a claim by you at the commencement of the policy or when the journey was booked (whichever is the later).
- ✗ Pregnancy, childbirth or any medical complications resulting therefrom if you are, or would have been, pregnant for 7 months or longer at any point during a journey.
- ✗ Your deliberate exposure to exceptional danger (except in an attempt to save human life).
- ✗ Sports or leisure activities where there is a significant risk of bodily injury such as jet-skiing, bungee jumping, quad biking, rock climbing, etc.
- ✗ You travelling to a destination where the government of your country of domicile or country of residence is advising against travel.

Your insurance policy does not cover any claim in any way caused by or resulting from:

- ✗ Coronavirus disease (COVID-19);
- ✗ Severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2);
- ✗ Any mutation or variation of SARS-CoV-2;

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! To be eligible as policyholder you must be 18 or over and under 76 of age and as an individual, be domiciled in Belgium or as a company have registered office in Belgium.
- ! You can take coverage for you, your partner and/or your family (living under the same roof).
- ! Journeys with a destination within your country of domicile or country of residence provided it involves at least 1 night accommodation that has been booked before commencement of the journey.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ In the entire world.

What are my obligations?

- When concluding the contract, you must provide us with honest, accurate and complete information on the risk to be insured.
- You must take all necessary precautions to avoid any damage.
- You must notify us of any claim, as well as its circumstances, within the period specified in the general conditions. In addition, you must take all reasonable measures to prevent and limit the consequences of a loss.
- In the event of physical injuries, you must have the illness or injury certified by a doctor in the event of an accident and take the necessary measures to provide us with medical information concerning the insured person. In addition, allow our doctors to have access to medical information concerning the injured or ill insured person and allow the doctor designated by us to examine him.
- You have to be covered before you actually travel in order to be insured – you cannot buy the policy whilst already travelling.

When and how do I pay?

You must pay the Premium at the moment you request cover or an amendment (even in case of a deferred start date). The contract will never start, and no amendment will be effective until we have received the payment of the premium.

When does the cover start and end?

The contract takes effect on the starting date mentioned in the policy schedule and has a maximum duration of one year. The contract is then tacitly renewed for successive periods of one year until the first day of the month following the 76th anniversary of the insured. The contract ends by operation of law on the death of the insured.

The contract may also end if we cancel it:

- up to 3 months before its annual renewal date.
- after a claim or in case we refuse to cover a claim.
- in all other cases provided by the insurance code.

Note that cover for cancellation operates from the date of booking the journey or the purchase date of the Insurance (whichever is the later) until commencement of the journey or expiry of the period of insurance (whichever is the earlier).

How do I cancel the contract?

- You may cancel your policy within 14 days of the purchase date. Provided you have not made a claim or start your journey, you will receive a refund of any premium paid.
- After the 14 days' period, you can cancel your policy 3 months before renewal date by registered letter, by bailiff's writ or by issuing a termination letter with receipt, otherwise it will be automatically renewed for another year.
